

Rocky Flats Citizens Advisory Board Recommendation 96-3 to the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment

Approved January 11, 1996

The Rocky Flats Citizens Advisory Board (RFCAB) endorses the concept of the Rocky Flats Area Emergency Public Assistance and Health Referral Center. The Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment implementation of the Plan should include review and input by the RFCAB. The RFCAB requests regular consultation with the Health Subcommittee as issues arise and new strategies are developed.

The Rocky Flats Citizens Advisory Board is a community advisory group that reviews and provides recommendations on cleanup plans for Rocky Flats, a former nuclear weapons plant outside of Denver, Colorado.
